

It's been a long time coming, but we finally did it!

Since we served our first salad at the cafe, we've received incredible feedback and calls to bottle the Apricot Dijonaise that my bro created. Chef Jeff Davis (the bro in question) came to Washinton to help us open the Q after working as a chef in Philly for over 30 years. He shared this culinary gem with us, which has been a huge hit ever since. It's hard to believe that a salad dressing would get so much attention, but there's a reason! If you've tried it, you know what we mean. ;)

*Currently available at Foodscape Walla Walla.

Limited quantities are available, but we'll make more!